

Look Back at Your Faith

John 1:1-4

Answer the following questions about your faith in God during last year. Your responses will help you have a healthy perspective on the important areas of your life in 2009. When you complete the questionnaire, read over your responses and allow God to inspire you to move forward in your faith and relationship with God in 2010.

What have you heard?

God speaks to our hearts through his word, prayer, life circumstances, and the witness of other believers.

On a scale of 1 to 10 with 1 meaning not at all, and ten meaning daily, how often did you position yourself to hear from God? Mark the line.

1 _____ 5 _____ 10

I didn't position myself to hear from God I positioned myself a few times this year I tried to position myself daily.

When did God speak to you last year?

What did God say during those times?

What have we seen?

Seeing the work of God requires us to be able to differentiate between his light and the world around us.

On a scale of 1 to 10 with 1 meaning filtered more to the natural world and 10 meaning filtered more to the Spirit, how did you look at life in 2009? Mark the line.

1 _____ 5 _____ 10

My outlook on life leaned more toward the natural world. I tried sometimes to see life spiritually I saw life more in the spirit during the year.

When was the last time you saw God move in your life or the lives of others?

What were the things you saw God do (deliver, minister, help, heal) in 2009 that strengthened your faith?

What have we looked upon?

Looking upon the word of life requires us to lean in and draw closer to gain greater understand.

What were the things you saw in the word last year that sparked your curiosity?

Did you turn toward God to gain more understanding of those things? _____
What were the ways you drew closer to God in 2009?

Looking back, what were some of the opportunities God presented in your life for you to dig deeper to reap his blessings?

What were the issues, circumstances, or situations that discouraged you from digging deeper in 2009?

What have we handled?

To handle the word of life we have to apply it in our lives to activate our faith and release the power of the Holy Spirit.

What were some of the words you heard from God last year that inspired you to incorporate them into your life?

What were some of the truths you heard that you were able to verify by your life experiences?

Give some examples of times during the year when your faith in the word of God released the Holy Spirit to do God's will in your life.

The Benefits of Looking Back

What testimonies do you have of God's goodness in 2009?

How did you actively seek to have fellowship with other believers?

What things did you experience that filled your joy in 2009?
